Lil Lowe turns 100 with a party to celebrate!

Lil Lowe, resident of Coral Sea Gardens Retirement Village turns 100 this Saturday and to celebrate a party is being held Coral Sea Gardens this Friday 19 October at 1215pm.

Mayor of Cairns, Councillor Kevin Byrne, will present Lil with a special plaque to commemorate her achievement and a celebratory cake will follow for close friends and relatives.

Ellen Beatrice Lowe (or Lil) was born 20 October 1907. She has one daughter, Patricia, three grandchildren, Jacqueline, Stephen and Gary, 9 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandson. Originally from England Lil has lived in Australia for many years.

Lil's passion is her art and in particular painting. Over the years she has given away many of her works and has had to stop painting because of her failing eyesight.

Lil and her family will be available for an interview during the celebration.
